

Gary Walsh. Australia, March 2018

97
points

COLERAINE - THE GREAT WINE OF NEW ZEALAND

A head-spinning array of violet, red and black fruits, gentle spiced biscuit oak, olive and lead pencil. It's medium-bodied, succulent, yet firm, with toothsome tannin, a beautiful mouth-perfume, black tea and small just ripe berries, and a finish where freshness, vibrancy and tannin push the wine very long.

A CLASSIC VINTAGE. STUNNING WINE. PRECISION.

Te MATA
E S T A T E 1 8 9 6