

The New Zealand Herald

viva

By Jo Burzynska

The 10 Best Wines of 2015

Te Mata Estate

Coleraine '13

Te Mata Estate's flagship has set a new benchmark. There's great concentration and elegance to its fresh blackcurrant fruit, that's joined by licorice, herb, stony and savoury notes. These are underpinned by firm but ripe satiny tannins, which should keep this harmonious wine in fine form for decades.

Te MATA
ESTATE 1896

