Te Mata Estate Coleraine '13

Finally there's the 2013 Coleraine. Te Mata Estate Coleraine is one of the southern hemisphere's finest cabernets, and the latest release enhances that reputation. Although it clearly needs to be cellared, the blackcurrant/tobacco/cedar nose and intense firm palate simply dripped with class. This wine will begin to show what it's all about in five years, and be magnificent in ten.
